THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I write this, we are approaching the Birthday of our Savior and King of Kings and I think it serves as a great time to touch on all the generous contributions that have been made to SMBA in recent years by our members. In addition to the time, talent, and efforts of our officers, board, and committees, members have stepped up and made donations to our scholarship fund to the point that we now have a nest egg in the Treasury for future scholarship expenditures. Hopefully, this will continue and grow to the point that eventually we will be able to fund more scholarships, increase the amount, or both.

Several members have donated very valuable instruments to SMBA in recent years, an Adams Custom Dobro by a former SMBA President, Ray Gross that we raffled off in 2016 at our picnic, and a Deering Black Diamond Banjo, donated by a lady member from Steelton that we raffled off for our benefit for Charlie Tillman a few years back.

This kind of dedication by members is what SMBA is all about, that and promoting and preserving the music we all love. At our November Fall Board Meeting, we voted to start an instrument library, intended for keeping on hand instruments to lend out to young folks desiring to learn to play bluegrass that might otherwise not be able to without an instrument to learn and take lessons on. This library will work, hand in hand, along side our scholarship program and Scholarship Chair, Kristen Schneider. Board member, Wayne Miedwig has volunteered to be the Librarian and Custodian of these instruments. All is not yet in place as for the rules for these instruments being lent out, but I envision youngsters being able to utilize them to learn from and take lessons on, regardless of if they've received a scholarship or not. When they've either outgrown them, obtained their own, or their loan time has expired and another is waiting in line, they then return the instrument to Wayne for storage or for moving on to another student.

While addressing the library, we are also soliciting one or more persons who repair instruments that may be interested in donating their time to help in repairing and keeping these instruments in good shape. Anyone interested in helping with this can see any officer for more information.

Before our meeting was over, we had two donations of instruments and promises of 4 more just from our Board and Officers who were present. We invite and solicit all members to think about donating an instrument if you have any that are not being used around the house and feel so inclined. Instruments do not need to be in perfect condition as we will administer to taking care of that. All that is needed is to contact Wayne, Kristin, myself, or any SMBA officer and we will help you with this donation. We are a 501c3 non-profit organization so the donation may be tax deductible. You may want to see your accountant for info on this and if so, we can give you a receipt for this donation.

Also, while all of this is in discussion, the Board, Officers and Myself invite each member to consider a monetary gift to our scholarship fund or to any other area of our organization. You can designate the area or capacity for which you desire that money to be used. Some examples are for general expenditures, assisting in helping pay the bands for our concert series, expanding our activities in other areas, or any other activity that is connected to bluegrass that you feel needs assistance from SMBA. This could be accomplished in your will, a trust set up for this purpose, or any of several other ways that you desire. Again, if interested, we invite you to speak with any of our officers and consult your attorney and/or accountant.

Our aim is to keep SMBA solvent and active for decades for folks coming along that share our love for bluegrass music and keep alive the spirit and intention that was intended by our founders over 35 years ago.

President's Message

As members you may not be aware, but SMBA is also a sustaining professional member of IBMA and also the International Bluegrass Music Museum, so we actually wear many hats when it comes to promoting and supporting the music we love.

All of this is a lot to digest in one President's Message but I feel it's a start toward all of the above and again, I invite all interested parties to see any of us about any of the above.

In closing I wish everyone a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year filled with happiness, good health and plenty of good wholesome Bluegrass.

Dec 30, Nothin' Fancy*

Another band who always is a SMBA crowd pleaser is Nothin' Fancy. Longtime band leader Mike Andes is the mandolin player and lead vocalist of this fine group. Caleb Cox is a fine young vocalist and is on guitar, dobro and lead vocals. Longtime members of this group are Mitchel Davis on banjo and classically trained fiddler Chris Sexton. Longtime bass player, Tony Shorter has left the group and they recently announced that James "Cool Cat" Cox, younger brother of Caleb has finally accepted the position as their regular bass player.

Nothin' Fancy always has an entertaining and humorous show as well as an excellent mix of great traditional bluegrass. Last year when they were here, the weather was bad and so was our crowd. Please come out for this fine band and show them that last year was a fluke and SMBA still knows how to fill the house for a great band.

The Henry Werner Family Band will perform 1/2 hour before Nothing Fancy.

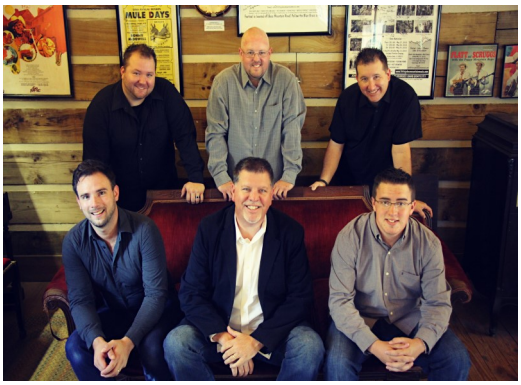
BAND BIOS

Jan 13 - Feller & Hill & the Bluegrass Buckaroos

Our January band will be Feller & Hill. They were here 3 years ago and presented an outstanding performance. Their performances of songs from Buck Owens and the Boys From Indiana are memorable and their specialty, as well as some of their own hits like Big Blue Roses which topped the charts a few years ago. Co-band leader, Tom Feller on Mandolin and vocals is a sibling from the Boys family as is Tony Holt, past front man of the Wildwood Valley Boys on Guitar and vocals, and son of the late, great Aubrey Holt. Fellow band leader, Chris Hill on banjo and vocals has a long resume with time spent with James King, Karl Shifflett, and several other bands. Bobby Davis keeps the band on track with his excellent bass playing. Anyone who has enjoyed Feller & Hill or the Wildwood Valley Boys when they played our stage in past years will have this concert on their “must attend” list, likewise anyone who was fans of The Boys From Indiana or Buck Owens.

Feb 10 - Sideline



Don’t let the name of this band fool you. They are an all star band of musicians from other all star bands who originally got together to play a few dates when their respective bands were off the road. Hence the name “Sideline”, which they are certainly not today. They are full time and charting songs and CD’s regularly. Steve Dilling, formerly of 3rd Tyme Out, is the band emcee and excels on banjo and vocals. He is joined on fabulous guitar and vocals by his son-in-law, Skip Cherryholmes, ex of the Cherryholmes, who puts on his own special performances at times during their concerts. You WILL be entertained by Skip. All I can say about Jason Moore is that he’s simply the best on Bass and vocals. His days with Mountain Heart and the James King Band were fantastic and he has played our stage several times in past years with Audie Blaylock. Seventeen year old Nathan Aldridge is a rising star on the fiddle, as is young multi-instrumentalist and ETSU student, Troy Boone on mandolin and vocals. As I write this, Dobro player and vocalist, Brad Hudson has left the band to start his own band. I’m sure Sideline will come up with a fine replacement by the time they come to play our stage. Come see them. You will not be disappointed.

March 10 - Darrell Webb Band

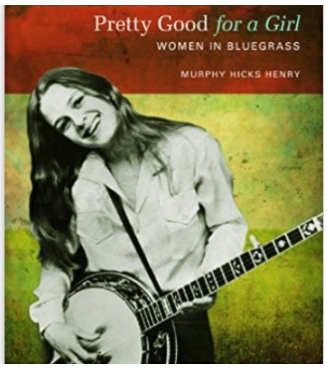
Our March 10 band will be the non-stop bluegrass dynamo of the Darrell Webb Band. Darrell is always in overdrive and plays non-stop and wide open from start to finish. A SMBA favorite from his own past performances and his days with Audie Blaylock on our stage, Darrell always puts on a first class performance on mandolin and lead vocals. He's joined by another young ETSU former student, Jared Hensley on lead vocals and guitar, fantastic young Rachel Maye, a protege of the great Bobby Hicks on fiddle and vocals, Doyle Lawson Alumnus, Carl White on bass and vocals, and young, multi instrumentalist Sam Crabtree on banjo and vocals. Darrell specializes in gathering together a talented young group of young pickers and vocalists, no matter where and when he appears. This edition of the Darrell Webb Band may well be his best.

March 31 - Dave Adkins Band

Possessor of one of the most powerful voices in bluegrass, Dave Adkins will simply blow you away with his vocals. Sounding like a combination of bluegrass great Dave Evans and country star Travis Tritt, Dave has quietly and quickly piled up the hits and become one of the rising stars in bluegrass over the last several years. You NEED to come out, fill the hall, and hear this fabulous singer. This will be one of his rare dates in this part of the country to have a chance to see this real talent. Dave, on lead vocals and guitar is joined by Mitchell Brown on bass and harmony vocals. Mitchell was a longtime member of the late, great Charlie Louvin's band and is a Nashville session player when he's not touring with Dave. Barry Crabtree is on banjo and has a long list of credentials playing with Larry Sparks, James King, Wildfire, Dale Ann Bradley and the great Harley Allen. Carl Caldwell is on mandolin and had played previously with Dale Ann Bradley, Dave Evans and several other top bands. Multi-instrumentalist, Kyle Leapard is on lead guitar and of special note is a veteran of the Iraq war, having served there while on a 6 year tour of active duty and still serves as reservist. Please don't skip this concert because you don't know their names. This is a first class collection of stalwarts in bluegrass and you will be royally entertained. I hope to see all of you in attendance.

How I Got Into Bluegrass by Mike Foster

A lot of people ask me how I got started in bluegrass music. I played rock and roll keyboards during my college days and taught myself how to play electric bass during that time. After college I sold all my instruments and started my working career back here in central Pennsylvania.
After working for several years, in 1976 the girl I was dating asked me if I would like to go hear some bluegrass music. I didn't know what bluegrass music was but I agreed to go listen. We went to Four Daughters Lounge (aka Alpine Inn, aka Kokomo's) at the route 83 south on ramp in Lewisberry. At the end of the night I went up to the bass player and asked if I could look at his bass. It was an upright bass and I was wondering whether it was similar to an electric bass. The banjo player in that band called Wheatstraw was Lee Lenker who became very well known in the bluegrass world. She even got her picture on the cover of a book written by Murphy Henry entitled "Pretty Good for a Girl", a book about women in bluegrass. Lee asked me if I had an upright bass as their bass player was just sitting in with them. I did not have one but found one for sale in the local newspaper. I bought the bass and was playing in Wheatstraw within a month having no clue what I was doing. Wheatstraw was short-lived because Lee went off to Penn State for college and started playing with the Buffalo Chip Kickers. That's when I met Jon Raemore through Darrell Keener, Wheatstraw's fiddler at the time. Darrell, Jon, and I, along with Bill Wilson and George Sneed formed Grass Express and played for several years in central PA, Penn State area, and Maryland. We played until 1983 and when the band dissolved I put my bass in the basement never to be seen for 25 years while I was raising a family. I thank Jon for talking me into getting my bass out and start playing again which was back in 2008.



Lee Lenker past away in 2008 of lung cancer at the young age of 52 and Jon Raemore is in a dementia home in Harrisburg. If it wasn't for the two of them I don't think I would be enjoying my retirement years as much as I am playing bluegrass and old time music.
